lation, it will fully come into its own through its intrinsic worth. What it now is, represents a growth, due to the deep forces from which it germinated.

As usual, so far as the Grand Army of the Republic is concerned, the observance began with exercises in the public schools on the day preceding. In the forenoon these were held in the Crosby, Cutter, Locke, Junior High, New Junior High, and the Senior High in the forenoon, covering the hours from eight o'clock until eleven. The thinning ranks of Post 36, G. A. R., were supplemented by comrades of Post 39, American Legion. The brief but specially appropriate exercises prepared by the teachers and finely rendered by pupils chosen for the several parts in the schools mentioned, were supplemented by brief addresses by the comrades. At the new Junior High there was a special feature. Two silk flags, procured by the pupils, were turned over to the care of the principal to adorn rooms 11 and 12.

At two o'clock in the afternoon, the pupils in Grades Six and Seven in the Grammar schools came to the Senior High assembly hall, where a program prepared by Miss Grace G. Pierce (the musical director), and teachers of Russell school, was presented, comrades of Post 36, G. A. R. and Post 39, American Legion, being guests of honor, Supt. George C. Minard having general supervision.

The program opened with a march nicely played by a boy orchestra, consisting of six violins, a cornet and drum, the players all members of Russell school. The stage was set to represent a soldier's camp in a grove and made a realistic and pretty picture. Here a group of boys, in Boy Scout uniform, gave some fine exhibitions of marching and facing, and a gun drill that was fascinating in the precision with which the boys handled themselves. There was a trace of a story running through the exercise, and incidentally, the boys gave the salute to the flag, sang "Star Spangled Banner," "Tenting Tonight," "Little Bronze Button," and Lincoln's Gettysburg Address was given as a recitation. One feature that had the personal element was the naming of comrades of Post 36 by boys called out by the commander of the squad, each one saying

"I represent comrade," etc. This part of the program was supplemented by a little playlet, introducing a Red Cross nurse and showing her to be a ministering angel. At the conclusion of this program, there were brief addresses by Past Commander Colbert of the American Legion; Alfred H. Knowles, Past Commander of Mass. Dept., G. A. R.; Andrew McGinnis, Past Commander of Post 36, G. A. R., a veteran of the Spanish as well as the Civil War; rendering of Longfellow's Memorial Day poem by comrade Henry A. Gorham. The exercises closed with singing of "America" by those present, led by the orchestra. The gallery was well filled with interested spectators, showing an interest on the part of parents highly commendable.

Tuesday dawned with a cloudless sky, but the heat of an almost summer sun was tempered by a mild east wind, so there was no discomfort for those who marched in the procession which was the real show feature of the day. For most of the comrades, marching days are over, and thanks to the courtesy of Charles V. Marsh, Camp 45, Sons of Veterans, there was no need, for automobiles more than sufficient to carry all present were provided.

The exercises followed exactly the program printed in these columns last week. At the sounding of no school, signal at nine o'clock, the graves in the three cemeteries were decorated with flowers in the hands of details made up of comrades, S. of V. members, Am. Legion boys and public school pupils, taps being sounded by buglers. After this brief service, these several details returned to Grand Army Hall.

At a little after ten o'clock, the units of the day's parade were formed in line on Mass. avenue, opposite the hall, and when all was arranged, marched to the monument at the junction of Broadway and Mass. avenue in the following order:

Platoon of Police
Chief Thos. O. D. Urquhart

CITIZENS OF ARLINGTON ENTER EMPHATIC PROTEST

If the Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railroad, the Arlington Board of Selectmen and Board of Public Works, desired an expression of the citizens of Arlington in regard to the former's purchase of the Tappan farm for the purpose of erecting a street railroad terminal for the housing of cars of the Boston Elevated, etc., it obtained it on Thursday evening, when fully twelve hundred citizens of Arlington assembled in the Town Hall to register their protest against such a construction.

The meeting was called by a group of citizens who had previously met at the home of Mr. John Lyons and drawn up a set of resolutions in protest, which were presented at the meeting and read by Mr. Frederick Hill, secretary of the committee.

Mr. William A. Muller, presided, and briefly stated the object of the meeting and called upon Mr. Dana of the Boston Elevated to tell of the plan proposed by the trustees of the Elevated.

Mr. Dana's idea was that the citizens in their remarks which the chairman said would be in order after the speaking of Mr. Dana, should aim to give a constructive proposition rather than destructive. That the Boston Elevated was endeavoring to find some way out of the present unsatisfactory conditions of handling traffic, in view of the recent protests of Arlington citizens, as expressed in a similar meeting as that of Thursday. He told of what had been done by way of relieving the Harvard square congestion and outlined what was proposed to be done with the Tappan property, which, according to Mr. Dana, would go a long way toward solving the present condition.

At the conclusion of Mr. Dana's remarks, the chairman invited speaking for or against the building of a terminal for the cars of the Boston Elevated. Mr. Arthur Birch was the only one speaking at all in favor of the plan proposed by the trustees of the Boston Elevated.

Then followed protest after protest from citizens, each one of whom brought good and sufficient reasons why this piece of property, located as it is in one of the splendidly developed sections of Arlington, should not be ruined by allowing the trustees of the Boston Elevated to erect a terminal on the land which they have purchased from Mr. Daniel Tappan. Several other plans were suggested, one to acquire more land at Arlington Heights where there is already a car barn. Mr. R. Walter Hilliard as president of the Board of Trade, entered its protest. Rev. A. J. Strait, minister of the Calvary Methodist church, which is in the immediate vicinity of the Tappan property, spoke of its detriment to the church, also Rev. Warren N. Bixby of the Church of Our Saviour, which is also in the immediate vicinity. Miss Armstrong gave some pertinent facts as to the present in deterioration of homes now with high valuation, if the scheme proposed by the Elevated is put through, 150 families can be housed on the Tappan land according to Miss Armstrong's figures. Many others spoke and most all to the point. There was long and continued applause during the remarks of several.

Finally the resolutions as drawn up by the committee, were presented to the meeting for action by the chairman to be submitted to the joint Board of Selectmen and Board of Public Work as an expression of the citizens of Arlington and were unanimously adopted. They were as follows:—

Whereas, the Town of Arlington is one of the most beautiful residential towns of Greater Boston, and

Whereas, that part of Arlington in the immediate vicinity of the Tappan Estate has been developed particularly as a place for homes, built and being built under reasonable restrictions which make it an extremely desirable location for homes, and

Whereas, there has recently been erected a considerable cost and sacrifice a new church edifice on land adjacent to and purchased from the said Tappan Estate in reasonable anticipation of future development of this and adjoining estates for residential purposes, and

Whereas, the use of the said Tappan Estate as a street railway terminal would be detrimental to enjoyment of the homes already established and the usefulness of the church recently located, and would prevent further developments of this character for a considerable area surrounding, and

Whereas, the Town purchased and now holds a tract of land immediately adjoining said Tappan Estate upon which it intends to build a school, all of which would be abandoned if said Tappan Estate is used as a street railway terminal, on account of danger to children and noise, and

Whereas, the matter of adequate transportation for the residents, as the town grows, in relation to the whole metropolitan system of street railway service can be provided for by the use of other land in Arlington.

THE IT RESOLVED that the citizens of the Town of Arlington hereby earnestly request that the Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway Company take no action toward the development of said Tappan Estate as a street railway center without the assent of the Joint Board of Selectmen and Public Works.

ARLINGTON MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES

Memorial Day, with its hallowed memories, its fund of suggestion and inspiring atmosphere to both young and old, is once more a thing of the past, so far as a date in the calendar is concerned; but if we read aright synopsis of addresses given in many churches on the Sunday preceding, and at gatherings in public places on that day, there are many who mean that what it stands for shall not pass into forgetfulness with the going down of the sun on May 30. Increasingly the day is being observed; ultimately, without restrictive legis-

GOOD WORK BY C. S. PARKER & SON

ARLINGTON HIGH LOSES TO WAKEFIELD

Arlington High baseball team lost to Wakefield High on the Spy Pond field last Friday afternoon in the Mystic Valley League series. Although O'Neil of Arlington fanned 14 of his opponents, his teammates were unable to do anything against the visiting team. Wakefield won three to nothing. Arlington played a better game than Wakefield, but did not get the breaks that came to the visiting team. It was a well played game on the part of both teams but luck was with Wakefield when the men got on the bases and timely hits got the men in for scores. Arlington hit the ball but could not get the hits in when they would count the best. Capt. Kechejian did his ususal good stunt at shortstop and accounted for six men during the game. Canniff also put up a good game at second base while Lane at first held onto all that came his way. Arlington battery men, O'Neil and Miller, worked well and hard for a win but their efforts were for naughts. The summary:—

MIDDLESEX SPORTSMAN'S ASSN.

The house committee has made a decided improvement to the building and by it added about half as much floor space as the original hall occupied. The wall between the new piazza and the main hall has been taken down and the change is a great improvement. This is not completed as yet, according to "Brig" Young who is seeing that the job is done right and when it is finished the members will have one of the best and most enjoyable piazzas in the town.

Announcement has been made that the men who send their families away for the summer and need some recreation and a good feed once in a while while friend wife is away, will be given ample opportunity during the coming few weeks. Clam bakes, dinners and the like are being planned, not to say smaller affairs almost every night. The list is on the bulletin board and those wishing, to join in the party should sign up at once as only a limited number can be accommodated.

The goose and gander are making themselves right at home at the pond and in fact visit the lawns of the houses nearby and sometimes getting chased away with a broom by some of the ladies, who do not care for this style of an ornament on their front lawn.

The radio machine is drawing quite a number to the club each evening. Concerts from Syracuse, N. Y., and other places are picked up and enjoyed here. An expert operator is at the club each evening to take charge of the machine and locate the concerts.

ST. AGNES LAWN PARTY COMMITTEE GET TOGETHER

Last Friday evening Robbins Memorial Town Hall was filled with a capacity audience, the occasion being a get together meeting of the parishioners of St. Agnes church, prior to the annual lawn party which comes June 10 on the parish grounds. It was a sort of reunion of all the parish and the getting together of the various committees working on the party. The affair took the form of an entertainment and dance, the entertainment being most interesting and the numbers presented by young people of the parish; under the direction of Miss Marie Josephine Frazer. Miss Lucy Neelan was the accompanist for the program. The gathering was a representative one of old and young of the parish and all had a very enjoyable time.

The program opened with a May pole dance by a number of children. This was a pretty number and the children taking part were Anna Norberg, Marie Kennelly, Francis Traverser, Catherine Kiley, Catherine Kennelly, Eleanor MacDonald, Ruth Spence, Marie Hyman, Mary Keefe, Olive Henssett, Margaret Miller, Ethelyn Barbour, Eleanor Purcell, Emma McArthur, Reta Sullivan and Gene Hopton.

Other numbers were solo dances by Mary Dacey, Margaret Eager, Margaret Miller, Gertrude Crowley, Dorothy Campbell, Francis Traverser, Olive Henssett, Eleanor Eager, Eleanor MacDonald, Marie Kennelly, Ethelyn Barbour, Mildred and Evelyn Gray, Anna Norberg, Marie Hyman and Eleanor Purcell, these being pupils of Miss Frazer. Paul Monier and Miss Mary O'Connor entertained with recitations.

One amusing and appreciated feature of the program was the appearance of an "orchestra" of 58 pieces. This orchestra was made up of lower grade pupils of the school of the parish and the instruments were all home made. Noise, rather than music, ruled but created some amusement for the audience. Following the program general dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

LET OUR TARIFF BE AMERICAN-MADE!

(The National Republican)

This government has been such a perennial good thing and easy mark for the rest of the world during the last few years that there are those at home and abroad who assume that the natural mission of America is to be humanity's perpetual burden bearer. The diplomatic representatives of European nations are busy telling us how we can best frame our tariff laws in the interests of foreign lands and protesting against the restoration of the protective policy in behalf of American labor and enterprise. There are many statesmen and near statesmen in this country and in Europe who seem to be very slow waking up to the fact that the present national administration has a mandate from the American people to give an occasional thought to the United States.

Recently, the representative of the French Chamber of Commerce, emitting outcry against the pending protective tariff law, declared that for the American government to impose stiff tariff rates on articles of French production was a violation of friendship and an outrage upon the French people. Whereupon a New Yorker who had undergone a recent experience with the French government related the story in a communication to one of the New York newspapers engaged in advocating the theory that our tariff laws should be framed in the interests of importers, international financiers and alien producers. A pair of gloves was recently sent by a New York friend to a World War soldier now visiting in Paris. They were returned by the French authorities, postage collect, with the information that foreign gloves were not permitted to be sent into France!

A good deal of the same sort of hypocrisy is being practiced by other European nations which, with the highest tariffs in their history, are arguing that the United States cannot honorably return to our traditional protective policy. Canada, with the highest protective tariff that country has ever known, written after this country had enacted the lowest tariff the United States has known since the Civil War, is indulging in some of this insinuating agitation.

The American people have had about all they want of policies laid down for the United States by foreign nations in their own selfish interests. The time has come when the United States must take some account of the needs of the American people, and act in something of the same spirit of preservation which dictates the national policies of every one of these governments now engaged in trying to control American governmental policies by propaganda.

For Ten Dollars and Ninety Cents—This 30 x 3½ Usco

THE 30 x 3½ tire situation today is just this—

The man who buys an USCO at $10.90 is justified in believing that his money is going farther in tire value than it ever has gone or could go before.

Naturally he appreciates the quality of USCO. That was established long ago.

It is still fresh in his mind that USCO led the national market into the $10.90 price range.

The makers of U. S. Tires always intended the 30 x 3½ USCO to be the highest value in its field.

At $10.90 it creates a new classification of money's worth.

"Can Now Eat Three Good Meals a Day"—Writes Mr. Lee J. Gill.

"I had not partaken of solid food for over a year, but after taking three bottles of O'Brien's, I am enabled to eat three good meals a day. I consider this marvelous considering my stubborn case of indigestion.

"I can cheerfully recommend it to anyone suffering with indigestion."—Lee J. Gill, 18 W. Maple Ave., Merchantville, N. J.

Seldom do you read a testimonial from as prominent a man as Mr. Gill. A clubman of note, a man known in big business circles, he says: "I owe it to the other fellow to let him know how wonderful O'Brien's is."

And O'Brien's is wonderful—a doctor's prescription that has relieved thousands of indigestion, heart-burn, pains in stomach and other digestive troubles. Contains only high-grade medicines—non-injurious, easy because it requires no denials. Get a bottle to-day.

PRESERVE THE LAW

Those persons who read the daily papers know that determined efforts are being made to repeal the Volstead Act and even to take the 18th Amendment out of the Constitution.

Thirty-two organizations, with headquarters in Washington, D. C., have as their object the breaking down of the prohibitory laws of the Federal government. In today's press I learn, that the Constitutional Liberty League, whose battle cry is, "Repeal the 18th Amendment," at its annual meeting in Boston, asserted that everything looks favorable for victory over the Anti-Saloon League in the fall elections.

Immense sums of money will be expended and a vast amount of literature will be distributed by the "wets" to elect to Congress men who are opposed to the prohibitory amendment. Doubtless they will be at least partially successful. The great over-turn which one of the leading political parties experienced in the presidential election sent into Congress from the large cities of the East many in favor of prohibition in place of those opposed to it. This year the pendulum will swing back and the "wets" will increase their number in Congress. Thus will the friends of wine and beer receive much encouragement, and they will not only labor diligently to repeal the Volstead Act, but they also will plan two years from next fall a president in favor of the sale of intoxicating liquors and a Senate and a House of Representatives that will try to destroy the 18th Amendment.

In the age-long battle between drunkenness and sobriety there has never been a more critical time than now. It will not do for the lovers of temperance to surrender their arms, and to think the battle is won. We may be at the last trench, but the enemy is not routed.

The primary elections are of the utmost importance. Every temperance man and woman in the sixteen Congressional districts of Massachusetts should attend the primaries, and see to it that only dyed-in-wool temperance men are nominated for the Senate and the House. In our own district we should discover the stand on the Volstead Act taken by every candidate for Congress and vote only for those men who will be true to the continuance and enforcement of this act.

"Pussyfoot" Johnson said in effect at Tremont Temple the other day that the world is looking to the United States for example and leadership in this great cause of the prohibition of the liquor traffic. I believe, if we continue to make progress for three years more as we have in the past three years, the matter will be settled for all time. The fight is on in many nations, and Mr. Johnson prophesies, that the world will be free from the curse of strong drink in ten years. If this forecast is to be realized, America must not falter in the struggle.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE NOT RESTRICTED

It may be of interest to our citizens to read of the recent decision of the Supreme Court in regard to the fixing of teacher's salaries in Springfield, Mass. The decision was made because of a petition of Mayor Leonard of Springfield and others, asking that the School Committee of that city be restrained from diverting money for purposes other than those specified in the appropriation made by the City Council.

The full court, in dismissing the petition of Mayor Leonard and others in an opinion written by Chief Justice Rugg, says: "The School Committee is an independent body entrusted by law with broad powers, important duties and large discretion. The obligation to select and to contract with teachers implies examination as to their fitness and of necessity carries with it the authority to fix the compensation to be paid."

"It would be vain to impose upon the School Committee responsibility for the excellence of the instruction to be afforded pupils and to deprive them of the power to determine the salaries of teachers. There is much of self-sacrifice and devotion to the common welfare among teachers in the public schools. But, nevertheless, the character of service to be obtained depends to a considerable degree upon the compensation offered. The full and appropriate discharge of their duties by School Committees requires ample power to select competent teachers."

The Legislature, moved by obvious and strong reasons, has vested the School Committee with the absolute and unconditional power to agree with teachers upon their salaries to the end that high standards may be secured and maintained in the education of the youth of the Commonwealth.

"In the exercise of their honest judgment on the question of salaries for teachers, the School Committee is not restricted to the amounts appropriated. For the time during which schools must be kept by law the municipalities must pay such salaries as may be fixed by the School Committee. To take this power from the School Committee would break up the long established system of our law in regard to public schools."

HERDS TUBERCULIN TESTED

Warnings were sent out May 25 by the Massachusetts Farm Bureau Federation that all farmers who wish their herds tuberculin tested this fall should take prompt action. At the same time, the Federation warned farmers not to have their herds tested before August 1st, as the new law does not go into effect until that time, and no reimbursement can be secured from state or federal funds until then.

Reports which come in from various parts of the state indicate that farmers are taking steps toward having their herds tested but are not aware that they will suffer heavy losses if they sign up to have the work done under the old law. A typical case is reported from Middleboro, where a farmer had his herd tested, and 16 out of the 19, calves, and were slaughtered. The farmer expected that he would be reimbursed, under the new law, about $50 a head. As the new law will not be in effect until August, he will receive nothing from state or federal fund; to recompense him for his loss.

The need of a prompt application for a test under the new law was pointed out by the Federation. In general, the applications will be met in the order in which they are received. There will not be enough money this year to have all herds tested, and those who get their applications in first will be the only ones who can be taken care of. Further appropriations next year will probably make it possible to carry on the eradication of bovine tuberculosis.

Farmers who desire to have their herds tested should write a letter to Dr. L. O. Howard, of the Division of Animal Industry of the State Department of Agriculture at Boston.

OUR WORST FOREIGN AMBASSADOR—THE AMERICAN "MOVIE"

That the American movie has the unenviable reputation of being the worst ambassador Uncle Sam ever permitted to go abroad, is the verdict of Colonel P. E. Holp, the well-known lecturer for the Society for Visual Education. "Sometimes this misrepresentation has been unintentional, but too often it has been deliberate, and even willful," declared Colonel Holp.

"These false representatives of America and Americans have decreased foreign travel to our shores, lessened the sale of honest goods made in the U. S. A., and in some cases complicated negotiations on international affairs."

To bear out his point of view, Colonel Holp quoted a statement made by Prof. Walter B. Pitkin of Columbia University: "The American motion picture has, from all I can gather from both natives and Americans who have been studying it in Japan, China and India, done more to blacken the reputation of the white race in general and the United States in particular than all the malice and libel of the most savage anti-American propagandists."

An educated and wealthy woman of Java, who had been deeply impressed with the American republic from her reading, was planning to visit our shores, according to Colonel Holp, but after seeing film after film with robberies, hold-ups, murders and similar "fast action" incidents, she gave up her visit. There are doubtless thousands of such cases.

"American movies are too raw for the South Sea Islanders," recently declared Dr. Albert W. Palmer of Honolulu at a meeting in Orchestra Hall. "The films shown there misrepresent American standards of life. They are often so objectionable that they are stopped before they are finished. It gives those polyglot peoples a deplorable impression of America to see pictures of vamp actresses. If American producers realized this they would surely put on a different class of pictures."

"The fact is," continued Colonel Holp, "so many complaints have come from foreign lands that our state department at Washington has begun to take a hand in the matter. In the case of one super-production purporting to cost one million dollars, it was learned that the prints for foreign consumption were utterly unfit for presentation in this country. 'The scenes shot for the foreign market could not be shown here without causing a popular riot,' was the committee's report. Yet such 'raw' stuff as this has been permitted to represent us abroad."

Doubtless the producers of such films have been doing what they call a prosperous business, but business of this type does not mean prosperity for the country at large. Constructive industrial and educational pictures from American studios will have to work overtime for years to come to offset the harm which has already been done abroad.

INTER-Y. W. C. A. TRACK MEET FOR GIRLS

According to word, just received from Dr. H. E. Stewart, chairman of the National Women's Track Athletics Committee, one or two places will be saved on the Paris team for girls who do brilliant work in the Y. W. C. A. track meet at the Harvard Stadium on June 10. Miss Anita Tarbell, chairman of the meet, announces that she has received a letter from Dr. Stewart regretting that no Y. W. C. A. girls were able to enter the try-out for the American team at Mamaroneck and stating that consideration will be given to specifically good work at the meet on June 10.

The Northeastern Field Athletic Council has made another step in lining itself up for better standards for competitive athletics for women by joining the Amateur Athletic Union. Every association entering the meet is also being invited to join the National Women's Track Athletic Committee.

Some excellent work is expected from two teams being entered by Pawtucket, R. I. In the running high jump Miss Edith Corbushley has been doing four feet, four inches in outdoor practice, and Mrs. Edward Estey, four feet, five inches. Miss Bertha LaGarde, captain of the basketball team, leads in the running broad, doing over thirteen feet. Miss Virginia Piggott, a high school girl, is the Pawtucket entry for shot put, making a uniform distance of thirty-two feet.

VACATION COMING

The school year is drawing to a close. In a short time a considerable number will sever their connection with our public schools, some to take up advanced courses in college or technical school, the larger number possibly to enter some business career, trade or calling.

On Monday comrades of the G. A. R. visited most of the school buildings to share with the pupils in exercises appropriate to Memorial Day observance. From more than one of the comrades came the query, "I wonder if these young people fully appreciate the advantages these school buildings afford, compared with what obtained when we were boys?" We trust that underneath the seeming indifference of the average pupil of today there is being built something worthy that will later develop with that which shall not only broaden an outlook on what they are encountering and fit them to worthily carry forward to even larger accomplishment, the school system, which, next to the church, have been the splendid achievements of the past that have made America what she means to herself and the world as a leader and guide.

A MEMORIAL TO THE LATE MISS SCANLON

A movement has been started among those who were pupils of the Crosby school, to secure subscriptions for a memorial to Miss Mary F. Scanlon, who died recently and who taught in the school for 49 years and was its principal more than 30 of these years.

Miss Scanlon, in addition to being one of the most beloved teachers of the town ever had, was one of the most eminent of the women teachers of Massachusetts. She was both practical and kindly in all her relations as a teacher; always had the respect of her pupils and the confidence of her superiors. In fact she was one of Arlington's most valued and influential citizens.

A temporary organization has met for the purpose of starting the campaign, with Mrs. Herbert Allen of Lake street, as chairman, and A. J. Philpott as secretary. What is needed is a popular subscription among former pupils of the school, no subscription to exceed $5. Any sum from one dollar to five is solicited. Charles A. Hardy, Town Treasurer, will act as treasurer of the fund. The kind of memorial to be erected will depend largely on the total amount subscribed.

ARLINGTON BOY SCOUTS

At the regular meeting of Troop 2, Scoutmaster J. Vincent Nicholls, last Monday evening in the vestry of Trinity Baptist church, thirteen Scouts received badges signifying promotion to a higher grade. Frederick McArthur received a first-class Scout badge, five others received second-class badges and seven received Tenderfoot badges.

Several members of the executive committee of the Arlington Council were present and conferred the badges, with appropriate remarks; William F. Killeher, the first class; George B. C. Rugg, the second class, and Maj. Norman E. Willard, the Tenderfoot. James F. Jones told the boys a story after which the meeting broke up. William L. Marsters of the troop committee and executive committee, was also present.

This troop which was only organized this year, has made remarkable progress and today is one of the most promising troops in the council. Scoutmaster Nicholls has worked hard and faithfully with the troop and the troop has responded to his teaching in a most gratifying manner. The troop is made up of young boys who show an earnestness in their work and an ambition to succeed that impressed the visiting committeemen very strongly. At present the troop numbers 21 scouts with several candidates awaiting the time when they shall be old enough to join.

Memorial Day proved to be one of the busiest days ever for the Scouts of Troop Three. Early in the morning they went to Winchester to honor the memory of their departed Brother Scout, Ralph S. Poole who is buried in the Wildwood Cemetery of that town. Coming back to Arlington the boys took their part in the G. A. R. program.

At twelve o'clock a lunch was served at the troop headquarters by Mr. and Mrs. Ennis, parents of one of the Scouts. After giving their troop yell for Mr. and Mrs. Ennis the troop went to Camp Oak in Billerica where they joined other Arlington Scouts for an afternoon's outing. Forty-five Scouts representing every troop in Arlington were present. Swimming in the old swimmin' hole was the best part of the day after which supper, cooked and eaten, outdoors, held the attention of all. Our new Scout Executive, Mr. Bacon, was given a "wild and hearty" greeting by the boys. The following passed their first class swim test, E. Rider, H. Collins, and F. Miller of Troop Three; Peirce of Six; and Spriggs and Paris of Troop Eight. Nowell of Troop five and Button of Troop Eleven passed second class fire making and cooking and Engelson of Troop two passed his second class fire making.

Five Scouts from Troop Two attended the outing; nine Scouts and two officers from Troop Three; two Scouts from Troop Five; seven from Troop Six; eight from Troop Eight; five Scouts and one officer each from Troops Ten and Eleven.

The new Blue and Gold Troop numerals were the admiration and envy of all who saw them. Guess what troop wore them? Correct the first time. Thank you.

HENRY FROST DECEASED

Henry Frost, a long-time resident of Belmont, well known in Arlington, passed away at his residence, 289 Pleasant street, Belmont, May 31st, in his ninety-first year. Mr. Frost broke his shoulder three weeks ago and since then he has gradually failed, in fact all through the winter he has shown signs of gradual decline.

Mr. Frost was the son of Henry and Miranda-Cutter Frost. He was born in Cambridge, September 3rd, 1831. When twelve years of age he, with his parents, moved to Belmont and there he has always resided, moving when he was married, just two houses away from his childhood home. His life in Belmont has been spent in farming, from which he retired in 1905. His sweet and kindly disposition endeared him to both old and young and he was known as "Uncle Henry," far and near in the town.

His wife, Adeline Frost, passed away eight years ago, after they had lived together sixty years. He has been selectman of Belmont, serving for seven years. He has also been a trustee of the Belmont Savings Bank and for several years was chief of the Belmont Fire Department. He is a past master of Hiram Lodge, A. F. & A. M., and is also a member of Menotomy Royal Arch Chapter.

The funeral will be held Saturday at 2.30 from the late residence. The devotional services will be conducted by Rev. Wm. H. Ryder of Essex, Mass., a long-time friend of the family and a former minister of the First Universalist church, where the family is identified. The music will be by T. Ralph Parris, quartet. The burial will be in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery. The deceased is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Belmont Butterfield (Helen), of Lexington; Mrs. C. A. Wilcox (Addie), of Reading, and Miss Marion K. Frost of Belmont. Also a sister, Mrs. Esther Fish of Medford, and a brother, Mr. Charles A. Frost of Belmont. Mr. Frost's son, Mr. Frank Frost of Old Mystic street, passed away last October.

MUSIC MEMORY CONTEST TODAY IN TOWN HALL

The Music Memory contest which the pupils in the elementary schools of Arlington have been looking forward to since the last one, a year ago, was held this Friday in the Town Hall. At 10 a. m. the pupils in the fourth and fifth grades were given the test and this afternoon at 3 o'clock pupils in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. During the winter fifty compositions have been studied as a part of their regular school music work. Out of this twenty were selected for this final contest.

Those who attended the contest last year remember what keen interest was shown and what a remarkable demonstration of memory it was and what a really large percent were perfect in their test, which not only was to correctly name the composition and the composer, but to spell it correctly and when taken from an opera, to name the same.

The children have learned these master pieces by living them and so this beautiful music has become a part of every child's experience. They sing them, they play them and they think them. Parents have become as interested in these compositions as their children and they in turn have learned them. At this final contest the children having a perfect score were awarded a sterling silver pin. A prize will also be given the school having the largest percentage of perfect scores. This will be reported in our columns next week.

Last week a preliminary contest was given when fifteen compositions were played. Out of 1268 children competing, 668 made perfect scores.

The swimming season having fully arrived, there comes the usual precautionary notes in the papers. Our young friends should remember that those who go into the water soon after a hearty meal court danger. Those venturing too far from shore in rough weather or before they have had sufficient practice risk their lives. Those who get themselves into difficulties in the water through imprudence endanger not only their own lives but the lives of those who go to their rescue. Deep water is not necessary to the enjoyment of swimming.

Why not test your appliances yourself to see if they are working correctly or if they are the correct appliances? It's a very simple thing to do. Just use these tests!

Do burners light easily?

Do they turn off quietly?

Are flame tips on range and water heater burners about 1/2 to 3/4 of an inch long?

Are they sharp and distinct with blue cone and purple edge?

Can they be turned down and still burn evenly?

Do cooking utensils keep clean where heat from burner tips strikes them?

Are you using mantle lights—not old-style open-flame tips?

Are your mantles clean and bright? Do lights burn evenly and quietly?

Can you use all appliances and lights at the same time without any noticeable change or reduction in heat or light?

If "yes" is not the answer to all of these questions, let us know.

EAST ARLINGTON

*Mrs. Joseph O'Connor of 97 Mass. avenue, spent the week-end and holiday at Exeter, N. H.

*Wednesday, June 28, the wedding of Miss Alma Russell of 7 Amersden street, and Mr. Francis Lombard of Boston avenue, West Medford, will take place.

*The marriage of Miss Viola Durling and Mr. Vincent Nichols of Egerton road, will take place at the Durling residence, Wednesday, June 21.

*Monday evening there were two petty breaks committed in East Arlington, neither one of which amounted to much. The Stevens market at 152½ Mass. avenue was entered, a cardboard, which had been placed in a broken window, being pushed out. In this store some bottles of ginger ale were stolen. The drug store at 108 Mass. avenue was broken into, one of the front windows being smashed and the thief helping himself to the articles in the show window.

*Mrs. Walter Haredeen entertained the Samaras Club at luncheon, Friday afternoon, at her home, 15 Lakehill avenue. Covers were laid for eight and a delicious luncheon served from a table attractively decorated. The centerpiece was a basket of peach blossoms from which were drawn four blue satin ribbons, at the end of each a cluster of peach blossoms was fastened. The menu consisted of grape fruit cocktail, lobster salad, fish croquettes, peas, potatoes, tomato salad, rolls, coffee, fruit, whip and cake. After the business session a social time with music was enjoyed.

*On Saturday, June 3, a pretty wedding will take place in Conway Centre, N. H., when Harold L. Kinsman of 54½ Marathon street, will be married to Esther I. Potter of Conway, N. H. Mr. Kinsman has resided in Arlington for the past six years, previous to which his home was in Cambridge, where he was born. Mr. Kinsman is a Lowell Institute graduate and also much interested in church and social activities in Arlington. The couple will make their home at 32 Cleveland street, East Arlington, and will be at home after July 1. Ralph E. Kinsman, brother of the groom, will go to Conway Centre today and act as best man at the wedding.

*Mr. and Mrs. James W. Simpson of 7 Cleveland street, have purchased a new Ford touring car. Sunday the Simpsons went with the O. R. Heinrichs to North Attleboro to visit friends. In driving through Wrentham they witnessed a most interesting sight, at a large duck farm. The ducks, all white in color and numbering 75,000, were returning from the surrounding hills and dales for a meal. Led by a drake, and forming by themselves into rows of ten, they marched in perfect order to the feeding platform. As each was satisfied, it turned and walked out through a passage, almost like trained soldiers. The party regaled themselves on large, freshly killed roast duck sandwiches which could be purchased for twenty-five cents. They learned that forty-five ducks had been roasted the day before to meet the Sunday trade. One could buy a freshly killed, and dressed duck for thirty-five cents a pound.

*An audience numbering over two hundred and fifty gathered at Calvary Methodist church Wednesday evening to witness the "Newspaper Minstrels," given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society (Harmony Circle), with Mrs. Grace E. Thurston of Somerville, musical director, who made an instant hit as Katrina, the powerful song leader. Her laughing song was contagious and soon had the audience in gales of merriment. The Ladies' Aid Society were fortunate in securing the Somerville company in this catchy program, for it is in great demand. Madam Pruett, the famous keeper of boarding houses, Mlle. Smart, the clairvoyant, the Editor with his newspaper characters, Happy Hooligan, Mutt and Jeff, Buster Brown, Billy the Boy Artist, Tom Sawyer, and Huck Finn gave an evening's entertainment full of fun, the local hits on church people being received with rounds of applause. The chorus of thirty voices was responsible for much of the success of the affair. The tickets were in charge of Mrs. Wadman and Mrs. Bates, while Mrs. Morton, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. Estabrook did efficient work as ushers. During intermission candy was sold in charge of Mrs. Storey, Mrs. Malcolm, Mrs. Munroe, Mrs. Taylor, and rose pencils in charge of Miss N. Gass and Miss H. Wadman. An orchestra of three pieces furnished music during the evening.

*The myriads of patrons of the "big store" will have the pleasure of enjoying seventeen courteous demonstrations, which is a value of give each buyer a chance to purchase these articles, but will educate these people regarding the merits of a great variety of high grade products.
The Manhattan Market's phone and delivery services play a great part in the convenience of trading at this establishment, for who does not appreciate the fact that she can phone on a rainy day, or the delivery of a bulky order? And all this at the lowest prices, while the quality is guaranteed on a money-back if not satisfied basis.
Everyone should attend the Manhattan Food Fair.

mother of Mr. Kinsman and his sister, Miss Marie Kinsman, as invited guests. A long table seating twenty-six was spread in the dining room, prettily decorated in yellow and white. Favors of bon-tons and dainty place cards added to the attractive appearance, and from this refreshments were served. A pretty feature of the affair took place when Beatrice Hamilton, Gladys Rowntree, Dorothy Scholes, Josephine Ross, Virginia Hunt, and Bonnie O'Brien threw varied colored streamers from the corners and sides of the table. An impromptu entertainment followed the refreshments, when different persons present were asked to contribute to the program. Especially enjoyed were the reading selections given by Miss Grace Rideout and vocal numbers by Miss Marion Mishrel. Mr. Kinsman received many useful and practical furnishings for the kitchen and pantry of his future home. It was a jolly party and it is needless to say, that every one present had a wonderful time.

*Mr. George H. Mansell of 125A Thorndike street, passed away at his home, May 30, at the age of sixty-nine years. The funeral was held Thursday at three o'clock from the late home. The devotional services were by Rev. Mr. Bixby. The burial was in South Berwick, Me. Mr. L. Brooks Saville, the undertaker, had charge of the details of the funeral.

*The Ladies' Guild of Church of Our Saviour held its annual meeting and election of officers Wednesday evening. Mrs. Elmer Lewis, was re-elected president on the nomination ballot, no vote being necessary. This was a splendid testimony of the work of Mrs. Lewis during the past year. Mrs. Harry Rowntree was chosen vice-president; Miss Carrie Hutchinson, secretary; Mrs. John Goode, treasurer. There was a large attendance. Mrs. Roscoe Perry, president of the Arlington Associated Welfare Committee, was the speaker and told of the work and aims of that committee, and invited the Guild to be represented in the organization. At the close of the evening, refreshments were served.

AN IMPORTANT ANNIVERSARY IN HISTORY OF CHURCH OF OUR SAVIOUR

Next Sunday, June 4th, Whitsunday, there will be special services at the Church of Our Saviour of Arlington, to commemorate the fifth anniversary of the ordination of the Rev. Warren N. Bixby to the priesthood, the sixth anniversary of his taking charge of the Church of Our Saviour, and the third anniversary of the completion of the new church building.

Six years ago, the Church of Our Saviour was worshipping in the afternoon in the Magnolia bungalow. Mr. Bixby's first task was the building of a new church edifice. After three years of hard work, the nave of the church was completed and was dedicated by Bishop Babcock on Whitsunday, 1919. Previous to this, the church had grown sufficiently to support morning services. After the dedication of the new place of worship, the growth was greatly accelerated. The membership doubled and the Sunday school grew from an enrollment of 40 to about 140 today. During the six years that the Rev. Mr. Bixby has been in charge of the Church of Our Saviour, he has also had charge of two and sometimes three other churches, that is at Randolph, North Easton, and at one time Holbrook. This spring, the vestry of the Church of Our Saviour, decided that the local church now needed more of Mr. Bixby's time and has made it possible for him to relinquish all of his work except at Randolph and Arlington. It is hoped that as the work here continues to grow, he may eventually be stationed here altogether.

Another feature of the work of the Church of Our Saviour in the last few years, has been the development of quite a large social work. The Ladies' Guild, the Men's Club, the Girls' Friendly Society, the Candidates, the Boy Scouts and the Pioneers and the Mother's Club, together serve to make the Church of Our Saviour one of the best social centres in East Arlington. To make this work more effective and to make room for the large Sunday school, a parish house is needed and the church needs to be completed. There will be three services Sunday. There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 a. m.; a children's service with Baptism at 10 a. m.; a second celebration of the Holy Communion with sermon at 11 a. m. Mr. Bixby will preach on the subject, "The Driving Power of the Holy Spirit."

FIRST ANNUAL FOOD FAIR OF THE MANHATTAN MARKET COMPANY

Now the big event is on. The Food Fair being held by the Manhattan Market of Central Square, Cambridge, from June 5th to June 16th inclusive, and which has excited interest all over Cambridge and the surrounding towns and cities begins Monday. There is no doubt but this Food Fair is the biggest thing of its kind ever held in Cambridge.

The decorations of the windows and aisles of the store as well as the exterior, is the credit to any organization, and this feature alone tells the hours of planning and careful execution of these plans by the many help-mates of Joseph Carlton Beal, the Manhattan Advertising Manager, who is managing this Mammoth Food Fair.

The Manhattan Market is the greatest unit for Food Distribution in the Metropolitan District, and therefore is in a position to actually feature such a high class event and the concerns represented constitute the best grade concerns with which the Manhattan Market trades. The Demonstrators' Basket returned for $2.50 is an example of Manhattan merchandising, which is a value of which every housewife should immediately make use, as this basket contains more articles actually needed by the housewife than any basket which has ever come to the writer's attention.
The myriad patrons of the "big store" will have the pleasure of enjoying seventeen courteous demonstrations, which is a value of give each buyer a chance to purchase these articles, but will educate these people regarding the merits of a great variety of high grade products.
The Manhattan Market's phone and delivery services play a great part in the convenience of trading at this establishment, for who does not appreciate the fact that she can phone on a rainy day, or the delivery of a bulky order? And all this at the lowest prices, while the quality is guaranteed on a money-back if not satisfied basis.
Everyone should attend the Manhattan Food Fair.

WHERE JENNY LIND GAVE HER FIRST CONCERT IN WASHINGTON

One of the most dramatic and most pleasing incidents that ever occurred in the city of Washington was the night—back in the forties—when the golden-voiced Jenny Lind gave her first concert. Never before had so large and distinguished an audience assembled at the national capital to hear a singer. The building in which the "Swedish Nightingale" made her appearance was located on the present site of the National Theatre on Pennsylvania avenue. Present at this concert were, the President of the United States, and his wife, members of the Cabinet, foreign Ambassadors, Senators, Congressmen, and society in general.

Seated in the front row were two men who have won a permanent place in American history. One was John Howard Payne, author of "Home, Sweet Home," and the other was the great Daniel Webster. When called back for an encore after her first song, Miss Lind smilingly walked to the edge of the stage and, looking directly at Payne, sang his great composition, "Home, Sweet Home." The demonstration made by the delighted audience lasted for many minutes. Payne was visibly embarrassed as a result of attracting so much attention. His friend, Daniel Webster, however, was right in his element. At exactly the right moment he arose and made a profound bow to the sweet singer and then bowed to Payne. This graceful acknowledgement on the part of the popular Daniel naturally resulted in a renewal of the applause.

Jenny Lind was born in Sweden in 1821—one hundred and one years ago—and died in London in 1887. At seventeen she appeared on the operatic stage of her home city. She was brought to this country under the management of the late showman, P. T. Barnum. She gave 25 concerts throughout this country to immense audiences. The box office receipts were $712,000, her share being $176,000.

In 1851 she was married in Boston to Otto Goldschmidt, a pianist and composer. Shortly thereafter she went to Europe, where she appeared only occasionally in concerts and oratorios. During the latter years of her life she lived practically in retirement.

Speaking of Speculation:

THE Edison Company did not in its beginning fulfill all the requirements of a Public Utility. Its service was experimental, limited and inferior. Investment in its stock was speculation.

Experience and invention have changed this. From being an uncertain enterprise it has become an indispensable public service.

It gives the best in service at the lowest possible rates. And the return to its investors is supervised by the State Department of Public Utilities.

RINGLING BROS. AND BARNUM & BAILEY
BRING ENTIRE SHIPLOAD OF
NOVELTIES FROM EUROPE

Made even more tremendous than in 1921 by the recent addition of many more trained wild animal displays and the purchase of Europe's biggest horse show, Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey combined will exhibit at Boston, week of June 12.

All who glance over the cable news or who read the magazines must have noted the many contracts entered into by the Ringling Brothers for foreign talent last winter. A special ship was chartered this spring to bring the hundreds of human performers, trained animal acts and equine displays to America. More than a million persons saw the mammoth new circus of 1922 during the weeks that it exhibited in Madison Square Garden, New York. Now this marvelous exhibition is touring the country aboard five great railroad trains. It is a third bigger than the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey show of last season. It is ten times larger than any other circus now on tour.

Big as this wonder circus of 1922—with its more than twenty trained wild animal displays in steel arenas, fully 150 wonderfully schooled trick horses, 700 men and women performers, 100 clowns, and scores of features—the price of admission is no more than before. And though the trained animal numbers and the immense horse show were circuses in themselves while touring Europe, they are not offered as separate attractions by the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey combined shows. Instead, all are in one magnificent tent. One ticket admits to all and includes admission to the tremendous double menagerie. There are more than a thousand animals in the zoo of this circus, including a tiny baby hippopotamus only recently born and accompanied by its three-ton mother. Another remarkable zoological feature is an armored rhinoceros, the only one known to exist and for which the Ringlings recently refused an offer of $30,000.

ARLINGTON MEMORIAL DAY

Post 39, American Legion
Wm. C. Scannell, Commander
Boy Scouts
Harvey H. Bacon
Commanding Nine Troops, each with full quota of officers

Last year there were thirty-five G. A. R. comrades in line. On Tuesday those reporting for duty numbered sixteen. Commander Hubbard has been ill for a considerable time, and so the general order for the day was issued by Senior Vice Com. Locke; but on Tuesday he found himself in no shape to assume command, so leadership devolved on Jr. V. C. George H. Averill and he gave the ritual parts at the monument, the lot in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery and again at Belmont. The other parts were by Chaplain Henry Clark and Officer-of-the-Day Andrew McGinnis. At the monument, the G. A. R. ritual was supplemented by a portion of the Am. Legion service, rendered by officers of Post 39, and a large wreath was added to the floral offering of Post 36. At the conclusion of this service, most of the comrades of Post 36 took seats in autos, but comrades C. P. Kellogg and Henry A. Gorham, insisted on marching as color bearers, and shared with right general guide, Alfred H. Knowles, and officer-of-the-day McGinnis, the continued applause which greeted the passing line on its way to the cemetery. At the conclusion of the service at the cemetery, there was a return to G. A. R. Hall, where the parade was dismissed.

At noon, comrades formed in front of the hall where they stood at "salute" for five minutes, in compliance with national orders, and then by autos took departure for Belmont where, after repeating the ritual service at the memorial tablet in front of Town Hall, they were guests of that town at dinner.

At the conclusion of their important part in the services of the day, members of Post 39, American Legion, returned to headquarters in Adelphi Hall where the Woman's Auxiliary had prepared for them refreshments of soft drinks with ice cream and cake. The Legion made a splendid showing, fully two hundred being in line and they, with the Boy Scouts were a great asset to the appearance of the parade as well as giving most valuable aid in the duties of the day, as did the Sons of Veterans. Surely the Grand Army Post 36, can well feel that in these fine organizations they have ample evidence that the purpose of Memorial Day will be safely guarded by these, who before many years will be called to carry on.

The exercises at Belmont were concluded with a fine banquet served in the Town Hall by the Hardy Catering Co., six long tables being required to seat the assembled guests. When the good things provided had been disposed of, the larger portion left the hall to attend the after-dinner exercises at the hall where the Belmont Post of the American Legion had been entertained.

Senior Vice-Commander Locke of Post 36, was able to resume his place as presiding officer and called to order when the hall had been cleared. A citizen to represent the town of Belmont was finally secured to conduct the post prandial exercises, and he introduced Department Commander Henry Clark as the first speaker. Patriotic Instructor Charles S. Parker was next, being followed by Post Dept. Com. Alfred H. Knowles. For the American Legion, Commander Scannell and Past Com. Colbert spoke briefly. Law's Boston Band had their station on the stage and interlarded the speaking with music and vocal selections by Mr. Law and his associate. Several Belmont gentlemen were included in those called on to speak.

The exercises closed soon after three o'clock. On retiring the comrades found in waiting ample automobile accommodation for all, furnished by Charles V. Marsh Camp 45, Sons of Veterans, and in these the old boys returned to Arlington, each being conveyed to his destination.

The members of Francis Gould Woman's Relief Corps, No. 43, rendered efficient service in preparing bouquets and boutonnières for the comrades, and a noon enjoyed a social hour in the banquet hall at Post headquarters. For all this service the comrades are grateful.

Capt. Wilson W. Fay, now in his 85th year, who was commander of Post 36 in 1882, was absent from the Memorial Day exercises for the first time on Tuesday.

Comrade Robert H. White was with the Post on Tuesday, but did not feel able to share in the exercises at Belmont. Few have a wider circle of warm friends here than Bob White.

The list of deaths of comrades during the past year number four, out of a membership of thirty.

The comrades highly appreciated the courtesy of Mrs. E. Nelson Blake, extended in the form of cigars.

Several of the comrades accompanied the S. of V. to G. A. R. Hall on the return from Belmont, where the Auxiliary and W. R. C. ladies entertained them. Rev. R. J. Davis of the Heights Baptist church was a guest and gave a brief address.

There were several things brought sharply into view by this year's Memorial Day observance that lead us to raise seriously the question whether or no the time has not now fully come when there should be an abandonment of the long-time double observance of the day by Post 36 of Arlington. Comrades of the Post now able to parade are but a small remnant of that large group that in 1881 inaugurated the custom of dividing the day between Belmont (where a considerable number of the comrades resided) and Arlington, where headquarters were located. The entrance of the American Legion into the day's observances can now easily exempt the G. A. R. boys from performance of the many details to be attended to. There is in Belmont a Post of American Legion that is a close rival of Post 39 of Arlington of which all are justly proud. With the same spirit in which Post 39 has entered into observance of the day, we are sure their Belmont comrades will assume their duties and responsibilities.

But it is mainly because the combining of the two groups of American Legion in a double observance of the day means two halls and by this dividing, robs that which should be a single unit of its greatest value, that we offer the suggestion that next year a new plan for the observance of the day be made by both towns; that each observe it in an entirely independent way.

ARLINGTON LOCALS

—This (Friday) evening, Rev. Don Ivan Patch will speak on the church program for next year at the Orthodox Cong'l church.

—Mr. and Mrs. William A. Muller have issued invitations for an at home at their residence, 231 Mass. avenue, for Wednesday, June 14th.

—Auto owners will do well to note the signs posted this week announcing a "restricted area" in the centre of the town, also how machines must be parked.

—Mrs. John Varley of Concord, mother of John F. Varley of Magnolia street, sailed on Wednesday for Ireland, where she will spend two months visiting friends.

—The mosquito crop is very plentiful around Spy Pond this season and the pests are extra large. Just what can be done is a problem and one that the state should take up for solution.

—At the meeting of the Board of Selectmen on Monday evening John C. Hood of 111 Pleasant street and J. Merrill Mann of 15 Medford street, were drawn as Traverse jurors, to serve at the present term of the court at East Cambridge.

—Automobile traffic through the town was very heavy Sunday and over the holiday. On Sunday a count was kept for a time of the machines passing over the railroad crossing and the number, during the busy part of the afternoon, averaged 500 an hour.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Clements are the proud parents of an eight-pound son born Wednesday, the last day of May, May 31, at the home, 31 Bartlett avenue. This is the second son in the family and a coincidence is that the first son's birthday falls on the last day of September.

—Tuesday the High school baseball team went to Fitchburg and took an eleven to two beating from Fitchburg High school. Arlington used all three of its pitchers, but could not stop the Fitchburg batters, who made a regular holiday of the game and won it in the first few innings.

—In the Boston Chamber of Commerce drive for new members that has just closed, Ralph Hornblower of Hornblower & Weeks, acting manager of the 1917 team of the membership broadcast, ran second in the campaign with a score of 136 but was the first to reach its quota.

—Next Sunday special services will be held at Calvary Methodist church in honor of the first service in the new auditorium of the now completed church. Dr. O. W. Warmingham of Boston University, will preach in the morning. Communion service will be observed promptly at ten o'clock. Special music at both morning and evening services. Rev. A. J. Strait, pastor of the church, will preach in the evening. Thirty new members will be received into the church.

—Thursday evening in G. A. R. Hall, the play, "Country Folks," was presented before a very appreciative audience by eleven members of Charles V. Marsh Camp 45, Sons of Veterans, and the Auxiliary of the camp. Mrs. Maybelle M. Ham of Cambridge, was the coach for the play and those taking part did exceedingly well. Those of this town who were prominent in the play were Oscar J. Teele, commander of the camp; Ralph Young, George Greene, Mrs. Minnie Evans and Mrs. Phoebe Teele.

—The Arlington Rifle Club, a newly organized club of this town to promote interest in rifle target shooting, held an all-day shoot on Tuesday, at their rifle range in East Lexington. A large number of the members attended and the events were all of 200 yards, both prone and offhand shooting. Isaac Langell of Lincoln won the first prize with an aggregate score of 47 and George Finley of Arlington won second prize with 44 aggregate. The club is anxious to get in touch with all those interested in target shooting and Melvin H. Chapin of 235 Gray street, will take care of all inquiries.

—Mr. and Mrs. George O. Russell of Jason street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor to Mr. Wendell Gage Reycoff of Bridgeport, Conn. The engagement was announced on Wednesday at a bridge given at the Russell residence for Miss Frances L. Adams, whose marriage occurs June 14th, to Mr. Grenville Laing Hancock. Miss Russell is a graduate of Wellesley, class of 1917. During the late war she was in the government censorship office in New York City as a Spanish censor. Mr. Reycoff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Reycoff of 234 Pleasant street. He is a graduate of Dartmouth, class of 1917. During the war he was an ensign in the Naval aviation.

—A very interesting program was presented on Thursday evening at the studio of Miss Dorothy Wallace, 235 Gray street, by her pianoforte pupils. The pupils were assisted by their teacher, who is an accomplished vocalist. She sang the following three songs, "Who knows," by Ball; "Four leaf clover," by Coombs; and "Because of you," by Strickland; and in the closing part of the program played "Elfin chorus and dance," by Dubois; "Valse in D flat," by Chopin, and "Prelude Op. 3, No. 2," by Rachmaninoff. Her part in the program was greatly enjoyed. The program by the pupils was a varied one and all showed the careful training of their teacher. Those taking part were Elizabeth Pierce, Alice Cutler, Helen Robinson, Rose Carson, Geraldine Denison, Charlotte Moore, Sylvia Sweatt, Evelyn Brown. John Heiser acted as accompanist for Miss Wallace. The afternoon closed with a social hour during which refreshments were served. Miss Wallace has devoted several years to the study of music and next year will complete her college course at the Faelton School of music.

—Mr. Thomas S. Bonney of 21 Fairview avenue, is the owner of a new Pan-American car.

—Mrs. C. J. Jenkins of 43 Draper avenue; and her sister, Miss A. M. Pettigrew of Cambridge, went down to Kittery, Me., for the holiday.

—The Brownies will have a party at Mrs. Frederick Sawyer's, 22 Kensington Park, Monday, June 5. This will be the last meeting until fall. The Brownies now number forty-five.

—Selectman Charles A. Devereaux represented the town of Arlington at the banquet tendered Post 36 on Memorial Day at Belmont, and spoke interestingly of the relations between Arlington and Belmont through the lengthened period since Belmont was incorporated.

—Patrolman Felix Lopez discovered a fire in a rubbish barrel in front of the Finance Block on Mass. avenue, Tuesday afternoon, and gave the large number of witnesses a good example of efficiency in extinguishing a fire. He made short work of the job.

—James Ray Cole Lodge, No. 160, Knights of Pythias, will hold a banquet, entertainment and dance Thursday, June 8, at their quarters in Odd Fellows Hall. Special invitations have been extended to several Grand Lodge and Temple officers and a most enjoyable evening is anticipated.

—The annual memorial services for the deceased members of Division 23, A. O. H., and the Auxiliary affiliated with the division, were held in St. Agnes church on Thursday morning. The high mass of requiem was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. Matthew J. Flaherty, and the music was sung by members of the church choir.

—Mr. William Thorning Wood came over from Hudson, N. Y., to spend the week-end and Memorial Day with his parents, the William E. Woods at their home on Lombard road. Mr. Wood left that evening for Montclair, N. J., where he was the guest of his brother, Mr. Harold B. Wood and family for a few days prior to a trip to Baltimore.

—Police are asked to take note of the loitering along Pleasant street by groups of young men who sit and also disport on the banking of the old burying ground. On last Sunday no less than six young men were seen seated on one of the lots that had but recently been seeded over, the new tender lawn just beginning to be a thing of beauty.

—The annual meeting of the Woman's Aid Association will be held at the Nurses' home, of Symmes Arlington Hospital, Friday, June 8th, at 3 o'clock. The entertainment to follow the business meeting will include Clara Leavett of Boston; Abbie Hesselting, pianist; Stella Marek Cushing, violinist; Miss Alice Grayce Lenk, accompanist. Bright cheery books are solicited for the hospital.

—During the early hours of Tuesday morning a milk wagon driven by Soern Jensen of East Lexington, was crashed into on Mass. avenue near Appleton street, by an automobile operated by Alfred A.
